

Healthcare-

Total Population: 25,841,600
people (2021)

Infant Mortality Rate: 3.05 deaths/1,000 live births

Life Expectancy: 82.89 years

Infrastructure-

Hospitals: 746 public hospitals (2021)

Electricity Access: 100% of total population

Sanitation: 100% of total population

Drinking Water: 100% of total population

Communication: Telephones (fixed lines) - 7.82 million (2019)

Telephones (mobile cellular) - 27.88 million (2019)

Transportation: Airports - 418 (2020)

Education-

Literacy Rate: Total Population - 99% (2021)

Male - 99% (2021)

Female - 99% (2021)

Australia

Longitude and Latitude:

Australia's positioning on the globe is one of the biggest reasons why it gets the climate it has. Because it is on the bottom half of the globe, it's seasons are affected, causing its tropical climate.

